MINOT-SLEEPER LIBRARY—REPORT OF TRUSTEES

As we present another report to the citizens of Bristol there is nothing of unusual interest.

Painting was done on the interior and exterior of the library building, in accord with the vote and appropriation at the last town meeting.

The report of the treasurer gives the financial status of the library, while the record of books received and number of patrons is seen in the report of the librarian.

Bristol is more fortunate than are many towns in its annual fund for the purchase of books. From this fact, however, there is disappointment in some circles that more of the popular new books are not to be found on our shelves. It should be realized that the fund has to be divided among all ages of readers and among the varying types of books, of which there are many. We have been able to purchase a few children's books, which in this day are rich in exquisite illustrations. An effort is also made to maintain the supply of books for the older boys and girls.

The large majority of patrons, however, are those who desire to be entertained. Books of this grade can be purchased at greatly reduced prices, but for the minority, those who desire the new and outstanding novels, the price of books is very high. For this reason, and the fact that some of the new and most read books soon pass into the discard, it is important that this part of the funds be spent carefully and wisely, on books which will live beyond the present decade. It is the intention of the committee to purchase a sufficient variety, that the tastes of all may be met.

In connection with the purchases for the library shelves, Bristol is also fortunate in the fact that its book fund does not have to be spread over a still larger field, into the realm of magazines. This need is met by a special fund. The public is generally conversant with the Minnie Maria Day-Jackman fund which makes possible a collection of the best and most popular magazines, and these, after the arrival of the next issue, may be taken into the homes on one's checking card, the same as books are taken out.

The list of magazines is herewith given: Atlantic, American, American Boy, American Girl, American Forest, Better Homes & Gardens, Child Life, Christian Century, Cosmopolitan, Dumb Animals, D. A. R., Embroideress, Flower Grower, Good Housekeeping, Harpers, Ladies' Home Journal, National Geographic, Home Arts Needlecraft, Popular Science, Popular Mechanics, Readers' Digest, St. Nicholas, Radio and Modern Mechanics and Inventions, Nature, Boys' Life, Time, Mechanics Illustrated, Life.

The collection of relics has had some additions this year. Several rare curios were left to the library by Mrs. Minnie Keyser, wife of Frank E. Keyser, who is about to make a small, very fine cabinet for these articles, to which will be added several more; all to be kept together in the one cabinet.

The sale of Bristol histories is now solely through the library, as the supply otherwise is exhausted. Orders by whomsoever received are now filled from the several hundred sets purchased by the town at the time of publication. Four sets, netting $20, were sold the past year.

The librarian attended a district conference at Laconia. She reports a constantly increasing patronage of the state library, the orders and books passing through her hands.
